

IBP Room (EDU 112) Rules & Regulations

Please contact ibpsanthu@gmail.com for inquiries or reports

The usage of the IBP Room (EDU 112) is a privilege, not a right. All individuals and groups using the room are expected to follow the rules and regulations outlined in this document. Adherence is crucial to ensure a fair and respectful environment for everyone.

Any violations of the IBP Room (EDU 112) Rules & Regulations will be reviewed by the IBPSA President and Vice President, who may exercise appropriate disciplinary actions. These include but are not limited to, temporary or permanent bans from using and reserving the IBP Room (EDU 112) or, in cases of severe violations, reporting to the IBP Office.

Room Usage Rules

- Cleanliness of the IBP Room (EDU 112) is to be maintained at all times. Kindly dispose of any personal trash or leftovers, return any moved furniture to its original position, and erase any writing on the whiteboards before leaving. Failure to do so may result in a loss of future room usage and/or reservation privileges.
- Food and beverages are allowed, provided that users clean up afterward. Damaged equipment must be reported and cleaned immediately to prevent damage to the room or equipment.
- Personal devices may be connected to the room's equipment (such as projectors or computers), but misuse or damage to equipment will result in penalties. All users are expected to handle the equipment with care.
- Damaged equipment or furniture in the IBP Room (EDU 112) must be reported to the IBPSA. The responsible parties will be liable for the costs of repair or replacement.
- No adhesives, nails, tacks, or any other materials that could damage the walls or surfaces are allowed. Decorations must be pre-approved by the IBPSA to ensure they do not cause damage to the room.
- Maintain respectful and professional behavior at all times. Any received reports for disruptive conduct such as excessive noise, etc. may result in the immediate termination of room reservation privileges and potential future bans.
- The usage of the IBP Room (EDU 112) Storage Space is reserved exclusively for items and equipment owned by the IBPSA and the IBP Office. As a result, only IBPSA Members and IBP Office Personnel are allowed to enter the storage space.

Reservation Guidelines

- Room reservations can be made via the IBP Room (EDU 112) Reservation System by scanning the QR code in the room or visiting the following link: <https://reserve112.vercel.app/>
- Room reservations are monitored and managed by the IBPSA under the jurisdiction of the IBP Office. Any activities and events organized by the IBPSA or the IBP Office take utmost priority and are not subject to standard reservation rules.
- The IBP Room (EDU 112) is designated for academic, professional, and community-building activities directly affiliated with IBPSA and NTHU. Events hosted by external organizations, unaffiliated groups, or activities not aligned with IBPSA and NTHU's mission may be subject to cancellation or require special approval from the IBPSA and the IBP Office.
- For any individuals, departments, or organizations outside of the IBP planning to utilize the IBP Room (EDU 112) for any activities, events, or event preparation via room reservation—especially if longer booking times or consecutive booking dates are required—contacting the IBPSA President, Vice President, and/or the IBP Office via official channels is mandatory.
- Adhere to your reserved time slot. Arriving late or exceeding your booking time without prior notice and approval may impact your future room reservations ability.
 - o Room reservation participants must have set up inside the room at least 10 minutes after their scheduled reservation start time.
 - o Additionally, room reservation participants must have cleaned the room at least 10 minutes before their scheduled reservation end time.
- The IBP Room (EDU 112) can only be reserved from 8:00-22:00, with a maximum booking duration of four (4) hours. Any reservations that exceed these limits will be automatically rejected.
- The minimum number of participants required to reserve the room is seven (7), with the maximum number of participants being thirty (30). The IBPSA President and Vice President must approve any more or less participants.
- Only one (1) reservation is allowed daily, with a maximum of two (2) reservations per week. Utilizing multiple persons to book the room is allowed but, as a reminder, a maximum of only two (2) bookings are allowed per day.
- Reservations must be made at least 1 day before the booking time slot and reservations are only made official after the following information is disseminated:
 - o Email confirmation is sent to you by the official IBPSA email account (ibpsanthu@gmail.com)
 - o A booking status announcement is sent in the Official Line Group/s by an IBPSA member (if an announcement hasn't been sent within 12 hours please inform any IBPSA member)

Reservation Cancellation Policy

- To cancel or end room reservations early, contacting IBPSA staff must be done so necessary announcements may be sent out. Reservations may be forfeited if the party that reserved the room is absent for more than 10 minutes past their scheduled time without prior notice.
- Confirmed reservations may be canceled to prioritize IBPSA/IBP Office bookings. When the booking is canceled, IBPSA will send a notification to the affected parties and schedule another booking.

IBP Room RSVP Form

(<https://reserve112.vercel.app/>)